

Which were read and adopted, and

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. Carroll, from the committee on Corporations, to which was referred the bill incorporating the Baltimore and Hampden Railway company ;

Reported it without amendment, and

It was read the second time.

Mr. Carroll, from the committee on Corporations, reported a bill incorporating the Empire Coal company ;

Which was read the first time.

Also, reported a bill incorporating the Cecil Lodge, No. 62, of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of the State of Maryland ;

Which was read the first time.

Mr. Ohr, from the Joint committee, submitted the following report :

[See Document J.]

Which was read.

The hour having arrived for proceeding to the election of Police Commissioner of Baltimore city, State Librarian and Bank Directors, the ballots were deposited in the ballot box, which was delivered to Messrs. Ohr and Stephenson, who conjointly with the committee of the House of Delegates retired, and after a time, returned and reported :

The tellers appointed to receive and count the ballots cast for State Librarian, Police Commissioner for Baltimore city, and Bank Directors, would respectfully report that they have discharged the duty assigned them, and find that there were seventy-five ballots cast, of which H. P. Jordan received sixty-eight votes for State Librarian ; Samuel Hindes received for Police Commissioner fifty-six votes ; Peregrine Groome for Director in the Easton Bank, received fifty-two votes ; W. B. Massey for the same office received fifty-two votes ; Samuel Duer, for Director in the Bank of Baltimore, received fifty votes ; Henry Janes, for Director in the Mechanics Bank of Baltimore, received forty-seven votes ; George R. Berry, for the same office, received forty-seven votes ; E. D. Woodward, for Director in the Farmers Bank of Maryland, received fifty-eight votes, and John Reichard three votes for the same office ; John Reichard for Director in the Hagerstown Bank received forty-eight votes ; Henry Landis, for the same office received fifty-one votes, and Benjamin Fawcett and Timothy Twist, Esquires, each received one vote for State Librarian, and