

It is further agreed to strike out in section three, line six, the words "bounty boards" and insert the words "bounty commissioners;" in line fourteen of same section, strike out the word "boards," and insert "commissioner;" in same line of same section after the word "bounty," strike out the word "boards," and insert the word "commissioner;" in line twenty-one of same section after the word "bounty," strike out the word "board," and insert the word "commissioner;" in line twenty-three of same section, strike out all after the word "and" to the word "under" in line twenty-four, and insert the words "each of said commissioners appointed;" in line twenty-five of section three, strike out after the word "of," the word "two," and insert the word "three."

It is further agreed that section three of Act passed February eight, eighteen hundred and sixty-five "entitled, an Act to provide bounty for soldiers entering the service of the United States to fill the quotas of Maryland under the call of the President of the United States, of December 1864, and under future calls," be amended and re-enacted so as to read as follows;

"Section 3. And be it enacted, That said bounty commissioners created by this Act shall make reports once in every three weeks to the Comptroller of the Treasury, of the amounts disbursed by them respectively under this Act, and the persons to whom such disbursements shall have been made, and shall continue to make such reports until the quotas of each county and the city of Baltimore shall have been filled, and they shall make their first report within three weeks after the first payment shall have been made by them under this Act, and in addition to the compensation heretofore provided for, the said bounty commissioners shall be allowed for stationery and incidental expenses, including rent of room, a sum not exceeding fifty dollars for each commissioner in the respective counties, and fifty dollars for each of the Legislative Districts of Baltimore city.

THOS. KING CARROLL, Jr.,

J. TOME,

On the part of Senate.

SAMUEL J. SOPER,

SAMUEL P. SMITH,

THOMAS J. TULL,

OLVER MILLER,

On the part of the House.

Which was read.

The question upon its adoption was determined in the affirmative by yeas and nays as follow: