

jointly in relation to all such matters as may properly come within the purview of their duties, and concur therein.

By order,

W. R. COLE,

Chief Clerk.

Which was read.

Also, Resolution in reference to the pay of traveling committees of the two House;

Which were read the first time and referred to the committee on Finance.

On motion of Mr. Turner,

Ordered, That two thousand extra copies of the Lieutenant Governor's speech be printed for the use of the Senate.

[See Document C.]

Mr. Ohr, from the Joint committee, submitted the following

REPORT:

WHEREAS, it has pleased the Almighty Disposer of human events, to remove from the theatre of life, that good man, accomplished scholar, peerless orator and statesman, Edward Everett; whereby the country has been deprived in a period of national trial of the valuable and important services of one of its proudest ornaments and most able defenders; and, whereas, the loss of such a man is no mere private bereavement, but a vast public calamity affecting all classes in community;

Therefore, resolved, That the General Assembly of Maryland, being profoundly sensible, as an integral part of the Union of the severe loss sustained by the country at large, desire to place on record, this expression of their profound respect for the deceased, and unaffected sorrow on the sad occasion of his death;

Resolved, That in the demise of Edward Everett, the Republic of Letters, has lost one of its ripest and most accurate scholars; oratory its most polished, graceful and eloquent exponent; statesmanship one of its most sagacious, harmoniously proportioned and patriotic expounders;

Resolved, That in purity and loveliness of his private character; in the various mental endowments which attract the universal admiration of mankind; in the patriotism which knows no compromise with treason, and is ever ready to vindicate the cause of the country's honor against all assailants,