

Edward J. Phelps, of Prince George's county, Justice of the Peace for 1st Election District of said county, vice Boswell, failed to qualify.

Jacob Geyer, of Washington county, Justice of the Peace for 5th Election District of said county, vice Troxell, failed to qualify.

Jonathan Stott, of Allegany county, Justice of the Peace for 8th Election District of said county, vice himself, failed to qualify.

Jonas Ecker, of Carroll county, Notary Public at New Windsor, in said county.

Oliver P. Macgill, of Baltimore city, an additional Auctioneer in said city.

Thomas J. Speake, of Charles county, Justice of the Peace for 1st Election District of said county, vice himself, failed to qualify.

William W. Lowe, of Caroline county, Justice of the Peace for 2d Election District of said county, vice Henry Blackiston, resigned.

David O. P. Elliott, of Dorchester county, Justice of the Peace for 12th Election District of said county, vice Sullivan, resigned.

Samuel P. Smith, of Dorchester county, Justice of the Peace for 13th Election District of said county, vice Halp, failed to qualify.

Levin Mowbray, of Dorchester county, Justice of the Peace for 13th District of said county, vice Samuel Mowbray, deceased.

George R. Berry, Director of the Maryland Penitentiary, vice Sterling Thomas, deceased.

John Albert Wagner, of Baltimore city, additional Inspector of Hay and Straw for the Eastern Section of said city, under Act of 1864, ch. 339.

A. W. BRADFORD

On motion of Mr. Ohr,

The Senate advised and consented to the above nominations except Edward J. Phelps as Justice of the Peace for Prince George's county, and Thomas J. Speake, Justice of the Peace for Charles county, which were laid over for further consideration.