

Moses Lugenbeel, Inspector of Flour, at Frederick, vice self, failed to qualify.

William H. Derr and Daniel Sweadner, Coroners for Frederick county, vice themselves, failed to qualify.

William Woodward and Galloway Cheston, of Baltimore city, and Dr. J. Robert Ward, of Baltimore county, Managers on part of State in the House of Refuge, vice themselves, failed to qualify.

Thomas Woollen, of Baltimore city, Chief Inspector of Salted Fish for said city, vice self, failed to qualify.

William H. Smith, of Baltimore city, Gauger of Casks and Inspector of Domestic Distilled Liquors in Baltimore city, vice self, failed to qualify.

William T. Prime, of Prince George's county, Guager of Casks and Inspector of Domestic Distilled Liquors in Baltimore city, vice self, failed to qualify.

Charles B. Smith, of Allegany county, Superintendent of National Road in said county, vice self, failed to qualify.

A. W. BRADFORD.

On the question, will the Senate advise and consent to the above nominations?

It was determined in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr. Billingsley, of St. Mary's,

The Senate advised and consented to the appointment of Edward J. Phelps as a Justice of the Peace for Prince George's county, and Thomas J. Speake as a Justice of the Peace for Charles county, agreeably to the nominations of the 7th inst.

On motion of Mr. Ohr,

The Senate resumed the consideration of the Legislative business.

THURSDAY, March 9th, 1865.

Mr. Ohr from the committee on Executive nominations, to which was referred the nomination of John T. Sangston, as Notary Public at Greensborough, reported said nomination ought not to be confirmed.