

Myers received sixty-three votes; N. E. Berry received two votes for Director of the Bank of Baltimore, and there was one blank vote.

JNO. H. BAYNE,
JAMES T. BRISCOE,
FRANCIS P. PHELPS,
JOHN WALTON,
JACOB W. HUGG.

Whereupon, it was declared that the several persons were duly elected to their positions.

On motion of Mr. Briscoe,

Ordered, that when the Senate adjourn to day it stand adjourned to eleven o'clock on Monday next.

The Senate adjourned.

MONDAY, March 3d, 1862.

Present at the call of the roll the following Senators:

Messrs. Goldsborough, Pt., Blackiston, Denison, Eichelberger, Everett, Firey, Lankford, Sellman, Smith, Townsend, Watkins, Whitaker and Willis.

The Clerk of the House of Delegates returned the bill entitled, An act to repeal the 1, 2 and 7th sections of article 52, of the Code of Public General Laws, relating to the Keeper of Chancery Records and to enact the following as a substitute therefor;

Endorsed, "passed by yeas and nays, with proposed amendments:"

"Strike out in the 1st line of the 2d section the word 'one' and insert in lieu thereof the word 'five;'

Pending its consideration,