Pending the consideration of the bill the hour arrived for proceeding to the election of United States Senator;

Mr. Goldsborough, of Dorchester, nominated Reverdy Johnson;

Mr. Whitaker nominated A. A. Lynch;

Mr. Firey nominated Thos. S. Alexander;

The ballots were deposited in the ballot box, which was sealed up and delivered to Messrs. Sellman and Townsend, who, having in conjunction with the tellers of the House of Delegates, retired and after a time returned and reported:

The tellers Messrs. Sellman and Townsend on the part of the Senate conjointly with Messrs. Davis, of Montgomery, Coale and White of the House of Delegates, to count the ballots cast for United States Senator, report that there were eighty-four ballots cast of which Reverdy Johnson received fifty-six votes, Andrew A. Lynch received seven votes, Thos. S. Alexander received four votes, and there were seventeen blank ballots.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

JOHN S. SELLMAN,
TEAGLE TOWNSEND,
A. B. DAVIS,
J. M. COALE,
C. W. WHITE.
