Said bill was then returned to the House of Delegates.

The Clerk of the House of Delegates delivered the following message:

By the House of Delegates,
March 10th, 1862.

Gentlemen of the Senate :

There are many important measures before us originating in either House, that it will be impossible to consider and dispose of by twelve o'clock to-night; we, therefore, respectfully request that you will agree with us in the propriety of extending the session, should that be necessary, till 12 M., to-morrow, at which time the constitutional limitation of the session will end.

By order,

T. SNOWDEN THOMAS,
Chief Clerk.

The hour of 12 having arrived, the President announced the Senate adjourned sine die.

Attest:

C. HARWOOD,
Secretary.
