

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER,
Annapolis, March 3, 1862.

To the Senate:

Gentlemen—I respectfully propose with the concurrence of your Honorable Body, to correct the nominations for Harford county, submitted to you on the 19th ult., by substituting the name of Nathan Dean, Jr., as one of the Coroners for that county, in lieu of Samuel McGaw.

I also submit for your advice and consent, the following additional nominations for Commissioners to take acknowledgment of Deeds, &c., in other states;

William V. Archer, at Philadelphia;
Nicholas Callan, at Washington, D. C.

A. W. BRADFORD.

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER,
Annapolis, March 8th, 1862.

To the Senate:

Gentlemen—I submit for your advice and consent, the following nominations:

For Guagers of Casks and Inspectors of Domestic Distilled Liquors, in Baltimore city—William H. Smith, James Ensor, William T. Prime and John N. Lineweaver.

For Auctioneers, in Baltimore city—Samuel H. Gover, James R. Chance, William Hamilton, Charles C. Gibson, Edward L. Thomas and Richard Lemmon.

A. W. BRADFORD.

On the question being taken:

“Will the Senate advise and consent to above appointments,” it was Determined in the affirmative.

The following communication, which had been received from His Excellency, Governor Hicks;

Was read.