Which was read, assented to, and sent to the Senate.

The Secretary of the Senate delivered the following message in reply:

By the Senate,
February 26, 1862.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

We have received your message stating that the House is about to proceed to the election of a State Librarian and Bank Directors.

The Senate is prepared to proceed with said elections.

By order,

C. HARWOOD,
Secretary.

The roll of the members was then called, sixty-six members responding and depositing their votes in the ballot-box.

The Honorable, the Speaker, having sealed the ballot-box and inscribed the same as follows:

“Ballots of the House of Delegates of Maryland, for State Librarian and Bank Directors, Annapolis, February 26th, 1862; This box contains sixty-six ballots.

JOHN S. BERRY,
Speaker of the House of Delegates of Md.”

Delivered it into the hands Messrs. Pearson, Davis, of Charles, and Warner, who conveyed it to the Senate and after some delay returned and submitted the following
