

trial and other papers, or recopying dockets or docket entries, such sum as the commissioners appointed by this act, shall deem right and proper, and such payments shall be made to said clerk, by the county commissioners of Baltimore county, monthly, upon the certificate of the commissioners appointed by this act, or a majority of them, setting forth that they have examined the recording and other work ordered by them, and that the same has been properly done, and that the amount charged is in conformity to the allowance prescribed by the provisions of this act, and for the outlay for books and stationery, and for binding books, the said clerk shall present his accounts accompanied with vouchers and verified by his affidavit, to the said county commissioners, and upon such presentation, they shall pay him such amount as he has actually expended."

Insert, as an additional section, between the 14th and 15th sections of the bill, the following, to be numbered the 15th section:

"Sec. 15. And be it enacted, If any excess of fees should accrue in the office of the clerk of the circuit court for Baltimore county, during the time of carrying into effect and executing the provisions of this act, the said clerk is hereby authorised and directed to credit the work required to be done by the preceding section, with such excess of fees; and such excess of fees, if any should accrue, are hereby appropriated to that object, and the Comptroller of the State is hereby directed to settle the accounts and credits of the said clerk accordingly; and provided, if any excess of fees should accrue, the said clerk shall receive six cents, instead of seven cents, for each hundred words or figures recorded, and pro rata, and for indexing three-fourths of the amount, instead of the full amount now allowed by law for similar service, and such payments shall be made as hereinbefore provided for;"

Strike out, from the word "shall," in the 5th line of the 16th (17th) section, the rest of the section, and insert, "fill such vacancy at the next regular meeting after they shall have been informed of such vacancy;"

Strike out all of the 18th (19th) section, after the word "shall," in the 2nd line, and insert, "meet at such times as they may deem expedient, and may adjourn from day to day; provided, however, that the whole time occupied by the said commission in the discharge of the duties provided for by this act, shall not exceed one hundred and fifty days;"

The bill was then,

On motion of Mr. Johnson, of Baltimore county,

Made the Order of the Day for the 27th instant.
