

day of November, in the year eighteen hundred and sixty-one, in the several precincts in the city of Baltimore, distinguished by number one, number two, number three and number four, in each of the twenty wards of said city, distinguished by number one, number two, number three, number four, number five, number six, number seven, number eight, number nine, number ten, number eleven, number twelve, number thirteen, number fourteen, number fifteen, number sixteen, number seventeen, number eighteen, number nineteen and number twenty, conformably to the Constitution and Laws of this State. And whereas, we the subscribers, attending judges at the close of the election in said precincts, having this day assembled at the usual place of the sitting of the Superior Court of Baltimore city, with the books of the polls, on which are endorsed, the several certificates agreeably to law, and having cast up the whole number of votes given in said precincts, according to the certificates made out on the day of election by the judges, it appears that William Price, Michael Warner, James Stockale, Edmund Wolf, Thomas S. Alexander, R. Stockett Mathews, Nicholas Christopher, Jacob W. Hugg, Steptoe B. Taylor and William S. Reese, have the greatest number of legal votes for Members of the House of Delegates; that S. Morris Cochran, has the greatest number of legal votes for the Judge of the Court of Appeals; that Robert N. Martin, has the greatest number of legal votes for Judge of the Superior Court of Baltimore city; that John C. King, has the greatest number of legal votes for Judge of the Court of Common Pleas; that Hugh L. Bond, has the greatest number of the legal votes for Judge of the Criminal Court of Baltimore city; that J. Thomas Adams, has the greatest number of legal votes for Clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore city; that James D. Lowry, has the greatest number of legal votes for Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas; that Gilbert H. Bryson, has the greatest number of legal votes for Surveyor; that Frederick Fickey, Jr., has the greatest number of legal votes for Commissioner of Public Works; that Edward R. Sparks, had seventeen thousand eight hundred and twelve ballots, and Charles Towson, had three thousand three hundred and twenty-eight ballots, and G. Zimmerman, had one ballot for shereiff.

Whereupon, we so determine, declare and return that the said William Price, Michael Warner, James Stockdale, Edmund Wolf, Thomas S. Alexander, R. Stockett Mathews, Nicholas Christopher, Jacob W. Hugg, Steptoe B. Taylor, William S. Reese, Morris Cochran, Robert N. Martin, John C. King, Hugh L. Bond, J. Thomas Adams, James D. Lowry, Gilbert H. Bryson and Frederick Fickey, Jr., are duly elected; and that Edward R. Sparks and Charles Towson, had a majority of the legal ballots of the candidates for Sheriff, properly qualified.
