NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Wolf, Hugg, Taylor—4.
Stockdale,

Mr. Hammond, of Howard, moved to amend the title of the bill, as follows:

Add the words, “and the clerks of the said Comptroller and other persons having claims against the State;”

Which was adopted.

The title, as amended, was then adopted, and

The bill sent to the Senate.

The Secretary of the Senate delivered the following message:

By the Senate,

March 5th, 1862.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

We have received your message proposing to go into an election for United States Senator, this day at 1 o'clock, and concur therein.

By order,

C. HARWOOD,
Secretary.

Which was read.

Also, returned:

The bill entitled, An act to amend the 45th article of the Code of Public General Laws, relating to husband and wife, by repealing the 7th section thereof, and substituting the following in its stead;

Endorsed, “passed by yeas and nays, with proposed amendment;”

In which the House refused to concur, and

The bill was returned to the Senate.
