All of which bills so passed were then sent to Senate.

The bill entitled, An act to repeal section 133, article 30, of the Code of Public General Law, relating to the marriage of minors;

Was read the third time,

Pending which,

On motion of Mr. Phelps,

The author of the bill was allowed to withdraw his bill for one hour, to perfect the same.

The following bills were read the second time, entitled, respectively:

A supplement to an act passed at December session 1822, chapter 57, entitled, An act to incorporate a company to make a wharf at the town of Cambridge in Dorchester county, to authorise the stockholders of the said company to make sale of the wharf property of the company;

An act to allow Thomas Stuck, late collector of taxes in the second collection district of Dorchester county, further time to complete his collections;

An act to regulate the compensation of the State's Attorney for Caroline county;

An act to authorise the opening of a public road in Harford and Baltimore counties;

An act for the benefit of William J. Emory; the legal representative of Anne L. Emory late of Queen Anne's county, deceased;
