On motion of Mr. Johnson, of Baltimore county,

The bill, known as the Stay Law Bill, was made the Order of the Day for the 8th instant, at 2 P. M.

On motion of Mr. Magruder,

The order adopted to-night was extended until the delegation whose choice of bills, under the order, were not acted on, should be disposed of.

The Secretary of the Senate delivered the following Senate bills, entitled respectively:

An act to repeal section 16, of article 71, of the Code of Public General Laws, entitled, Oysters, and enact the following sections in lieu thereof;

Which was read the first time and referred to the select committee on Oysters.

An act supplementary to an act passed by the General Assembly of Maryland, at its January session, 1856, chapter 164, relating to the grading and paving of North Avenue in the city of Baltimore, and to make valid certain proceedings thereunder;

Which was read the first time and referred to the committee on the Judiciary.

An act to incorporate the Chesapeake Marine Produce Company;

Which was read the first time and referred to the committee on Corporations.

An act to enable Charles S. Middleton, Bennett F. Gwynn, John H. Sewalt, Benson Tolson, John T. Hoxton, Edward H. Wivile, sureties upon the bond of David Barry, late collector of taxes in Prince George's county, one year to complete his collections;

Which was read the first time and referred to the committee on Ways and Means.

An act to refund to Rebecca T. Neill a certain sum of money
