

(2) A PARTY REQUESTS THE STATEMENT.

(D) LIMITATION.

FOR PURPOSES OF THIS SECTION, PUBLICATION IN THE MARYLAND REGISTER DOES NOT CONSTITUTE REASONABLE NOTICE TO A PARTY.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 41, § 251.

Subsections (a) and (c) of this section are revised to state expressly that the agency is responsible for the notice and any additional statement.

Subsection (c)(2) of this section also is revised to clarify that a party must ask for the additional statement.

In subsection (b)(3) of this section, the clause "that is pertinent" is substituted for the former word "involved", for clarity.

In subsections (b)(4)(i) and (ii) and (c) of this section, the references to the "facts that are asserted", "facts", and "facts asserted" are substituted for the former references to "matters asserted" and "matters", for clarity.

In subsection (d) of this section, the former, specific reference to publication in the Maryland Register under "§ 256P" is deleted, since former Art. 41, § 251 seemed to intend to preclude any use of the Maryland Register for purposes of notice to a party.

Defined terms: "Agency" § 10-201
"Contested case" § 10-201
"Includes"; "including" § 1-101

10-206. DISPOSITION BEFORE HEARING.

UNLESS OTHERWISE PRECLUDED BY LAW, AN AGENCY MAY DISPOSE OF A CONTESTED CASE BY:

- (1) STIPULATION;
- (2) SETTLEMENT;
- (3) CONSENT ORDER; OR
- (4) DEFAULT.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 41, § 251A(c).
