

which added former Art. 76, § 8 to the Code for the limited purpose of "defining the publications in which legal notices and legal advertising shall be inserted," except in 1 county. That exception was repealed by Ch. 74, Acts of 1969.

Also in the introductory part of this section, the phrase "unless otherwise provided" is added to note generally that, e.g., the law that requires publication may expressly define "newspaper" to have another meaning.

In item (2) of this section, the former, broad reference to "legal and general intelligence" is deleted as unnecessary in light of the other examples.

In item (3) of this section, the former clause that exempted newspapers published before June 1, 1941 from the 6-month publication rule is deleted as obsolete.

Article 15A - Budget and Fiscal Planning

(H) ANY APPROPRIATED FUNDS INVOLVED IN A TRANSFER OR ASSIGNMENT UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF § 8-301 OF THE STATE GOVERNMENT ARTICLE MAY BE TRANSFERRED BY APPROVED BUDGET AMENDMENT.

REVISOR'S NOTE: Ch. ____, Acts of 1984, which enacted the State Government Article, also enacted subsection (h) of this section, which is derived without substantive change from the sixth sentence of former Art. 41, § 15C(a).

14A. ADMINISTRATIVE ACTIONS.
