

3-901.

(b) If there is a reasonable basis for believing that collusion has occurred among any persons for any reason, the procurement officer shall send a written notice of this belief to the [State Law Department] OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

(c) All documents involved in any procurement in which there is a reasonable basis for believing that collusion has occurred shall be retained by the procurement agency until the [State Law Department] OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL gives notice that they may be destroyed. These documents shall be made available to the Attorney General immediately on request.

Article 25A - Chartered Counties of Maryland

5.

The following enumerated express powers are granted to and conferred upon any county or counties which hereafter form a charter under the provisions of Article XI-A of the Constitution, that is to say:

(E)

To audit the accounts of all county officers, assisting the [State] LEGISLATIVE Auditor or other State officer clothed with authority in the performance of this duty; to provide for proof of all claims against the county before their payment.

Article 41 - Governor - Executive and Administrative Departments

(c-1) (4) Orders, rules and regulations promulgated by the Governor pursuant to the powers granted above, under this subsection shall first be presented to the JOINT Committee on Administrative, [Exec] EXECUTIVE, and Legislative Review or whatever other joint committee if any may be substituted by law by the General Assembly to carry out its responsibilities with respect to the energy crisis for approval or rejection. If the committee fails to take action within seven days of submission of the orders, rules and regulations, the orders, rules and regulations shall become effective as promulgated by the Governor. In the event of extraordinary circumstances in which it is not feasible to secure the approval of the committee an order, rule, or regulation may become effective immediately, and shall within two days be communicated to the chairman of the committee and be subject to reversal by the full committee which shall be convened within five days of communication of the order, rule or regulation. All records of orders, rules and regulations and committee meetings shall be open to the public.
