

Department of Legislative Reference or the [State Law Department] OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL or as secretary to the Speaker of the House of Delegates or as secretary to the President of the Senate during a session of the General Assembly shall be entitled to receive credit for such service upon payment to this retirement system, in a single payment, the contribution, with interest, which he would have paid on behalf of such service. For the purpose of this subsection "year of service" shall mean a year or any portion thereof.

.. 53.

(d) The accounts of the fund shall be regularly audited by the [State] LEGISLATIVE Auditor, and from time to time by such independent certified public accountant, the board of trustees may engage. On or before May 1 in each year, the board of trustees shall publish annually a report including the fiscal transactions of the fund for the year ending the preceding December 31, and a detailed balance sheet as of the said preceding December 31. The board shall submit copies of said report for posting at all the headquarters and all other buildings, facilities and installations of the department, and shall file with its own records one or more copies, which shall be made available to any officer or civilian employee of the department or potential beneficiary of any deceased officer or civilian employee wishing to inspect the same.

115.

(9) In the year of his retirement, credit of up to 10 years may be received by a member for benefits provided under § 117 of this subtitle, if the member files claim for it with the board of trustees and pays into this pension system an amount equal to the reserves required to fund the additional allowance, which may be paid on an installment basis by contributing not less than 2 percent of compensation per year with the appropriate final adjustments being made in the year in which the member retires, for previous service time:

(b) With the [State Law Department] OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL;

Article 78 - Public Service Commission Law

54G.

(g) Any complaint by an occupant of a dwelling unit, commercial rental unit, or store against an owner, operator, or manager arising out of this section may be handled in the county or municipal corporation where the apartment house, office building, or shopping center is located by the county's or municipal corporation's landlord-tenant commission, if one exists; if not, then by the consumer protection agency of the county or municipal corporation, if one exists; if not, then by the Consumer Protection Division of the OFFICE OF THE Attorney