

(1) STATES THAT THE SPOUSES VOLUNTARILY AGREED TO SEPARATE; AND

(2) IS EXECUTED UNDER OATH BEFORE THE APPLICATION FOR DIVORCE IS FILED.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former CJ § 10-901(c).

In the introductory language of this section, the phrase "voluntary separation" is substituted for the former language "that they have not cohabited for the requisite period of time, and that their separation is beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation", for brevity and to conform to the language used throughout this article.

Also in the introductory language of this section, the language "that the separation was voluntary" is substituted for the former language "regarding the mutual and voluntary nature of the separation", for clarity.

In item (2) of this section, the phrase "application for divorce" is substituted for the former phrase "bill of complaint" to conform to the language used in Title 7 of this article.
