

In subsection (b)(1) of this section, the concluding conjunction "or" is substituted for the former word "and" to reflect apparent legislative intent.

In subsection (c) of this section, the word "shall" is substituted for the former language "are authorized to". This mandatory language reflects the mandatory nature of the former phrase "shall receive", which referred to the information requested by the Child Support Enforcement Administration in subsection (b) of this section.

In subsection (d)(1) of this section, the concluding conjunction "or" is substituted for the former word "and" to reflect apparent legislative intent.

Defined terms: "County" § 1-101
"Support" § 1-101

TITLE 13. SUPPORT OF PARENTS AND ADULT CHILDREN.

13-101. DEFINITIONS.

(A) IN GENERAL.

IN THIS TITLE THE FOLLOWING WORDS HAVE THE MEANINGS INDICATED.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This subsection is new language used as the standard introductory language to a definition section.

(B) DESTITUTE ADULT CHILD.

"DESTITUTE ADULT CHILD" MEANS AN ADULT CHILD WHO:

(1) HAS NO MEANS OF SUBSISTENCE; AND

(2) CANNOT BE SELF-SUPPORTING, DUE TO MENTAL OR PHYSICAL INFIRMITY.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This subsection is new language added to avoid repetition of phrases such as "child destitute of means of subsistence and unable either by reason of mental or physical infirmity to support himself".

(C) DESTITUTE PARENT.

"DESTITUTE PARENT" MEANS A PARENT WHO:

(1) HAS NO MEANS OF SUBSISTENCE; AND

(2) CANNOT BE SELF-SUPPORTING, DUE TO OLD AGE OR MENTAL OR PHYSICAL INFIRMITY.
