TASK FORCE COMMENT ON § 12-112.

This section is new to this title on the recommendation of the Governor's Task Force to Review the Defense of Insanity.

Subsection (a) of this section is new to this title but conforms to present procedures related to the type of report required at the time of a civil commitment under title 10 of this article.

In subsection (b) of this section, paragraph (1) and the first clause of paragraph (2) are new provisions added to require that the court, State's attorney, and committed individual's counsel be notified any time there is a significant change in the security status of the committed individual. The Task Force believes this procedure will enable notification to individuals who appropriately should receive notice any time a committed individual is free of confinement.

Subsection (c) of this section is a new provision added to require the recording and tracking of information about committed individuals similar to that recorded for other
