

(7) He shall from time to time report to the Secretary of General Services the condition of the carpets, furniture and so forth, and may upon the order of the Secretary of General Services sell such articles as are deemed unserviceable or useless for the purposes of the State, and pay the proceeds of such sales into the treasury, and he may also, with the approval of the Secretary of General Services, purchase such new articles of furniture, carpets, and so forth, as are necessary for the comfort and convenience of the public officers and the members of the General Assembly.]

[136.

It shall be the duty of said Superintendent to prepare a system of rules and regulations for the more effectual security of the public buildings and grounds and the maintenance of order therein, and for the government of the watch when on duty; and such rules and regulations, when approved by the Secretary of General Services, shall become part of the law for the keeping and guarding of the public buildings and grounds, and shall be conspicuously posted therein; and any person who shall violate the same or any part thereof shall upon conviction thereof before a judge of the District Court, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined not more than twenty dollars and costs; and in default of payment of such fine and costs shall be committed to the county jail for a period of not less than ten days nor more than thirty days; provided that any person so convicted shall have the right of appeal to the circuit court for Anne Arundel County.]

[137.

All janitors, watchmen, keepers of steam houses and furnaces, and all other officers provided for by § 134, and all laborers and other persons employed permanently or temporarily in and about the public buildings and grounds under the provisions of said section shall be under the supervision of the Superintendent of Annapolis Public Buildings and Grounds and obey all orders and carry out all instructions by him given in relation to the care and protection of said public buildings and grounds.]

[138.

The Superintendent of Annapolis Public Buildings and Grounds shall, before entering the performance of the duties of his office, take oath as prescribed by the Constitution of this State. He shall be covered by a surety bond in accordance with the provisions of §§ 46 through 50 of Article 78A of the Annotated Code of Maryland. He shall turn over to his successor all moveable property belonging to the State.]

[140.