

legislator's employer, employees, and partners in business and professional enterprises; corporations in which the legislator owns 10 percent or more of the outstanding capital stock; and corporations in which the legislator is an officer, director, or agent.

(3) Soliciting, accepting, or agreeing to accept any gift, loan, or payment of a significant value from a person who would be affected by or has an interest in an enterprise which would be affected by the legislator's vote on proposed legislation.

(c) The disqualification arising under this section is suspended if a legislator with an apparent conflict files with the Committee a sworn statement which describes the circumstances of the apparent conflict and the legislation to which it relates and asserts [he] THE LEGISLATOR is able to vote and otherwise participate in legislative action relating thereto, fairly, objectively, and in the public interest. Whenever a legislator files a statement for the suspension of the disqualification, the Committee on its own motion may issue a statement concerning the propriety of the legislator's participation in the particular legislative action, with reference to the applicable ethical standards of this matter.

(d) The suspension of the disqualification by the filing of the statement is subject to further action by the Committee if the question of conflict comes before it as to the same circumstances and the same legislator.

(e) All sworn statements filed under subsection (c) shall be a matter of public record.

(f) A legislator who enters into any of the listed transactions shall report in writing to the Committee and the presiding officer of his branch of the legislature for recordation with the Clerk of the House of Delegates or Secretary of the Senate, at the times and in the manner required by the Committee:

(1) If representing a person for compensation before a State agency, except in a judicial proceeding or in a quasi-judicial proceeding, the name of the person represented, the services performed, and the consideration[; provided, however, that the]. THE Committee may adopt procedures to keep confidential the name of the person represented if that information is privileged or confidential pursuant to any provision of law governing proceedings before that State agency.

(2) If representing a State agency for compensation, the name of the agency, the services performed, and the consideration.

(3) The name of any business enterprise subject to regulation by a State agency in which [he, his spouse, and his