

qualifying group to obtain excess insurance in certain amounts; altering the annual assessment on self-insured employees for certain actuarial studies and audits; and generally relating to group self-insurance and workmen's compensation.

BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments,

Article 101 - Workmen's Compensation
Section 16(3)
Annotated Code of Maryland
(1979 Replacement Volume and 1983 Supplement)

SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:

Article 101 - Workmen's Compensation

16.

The employer shall secure compensation to his employees in one of the following ways:

(3) (a) (i) Any employer who does not, with the approval of the Commission, voluntarily insure the payment of the compensation by one of the methods designated in the preceding paragraphs of this section, must furnish satisfactory proof to the Commission of his financial ability to pay the compensation himself, in which case the Commission may, at any time and from time to time in its discretion, require the deposit with the Commission of securities as are accepted by the Circuit Court for Baltimore City for the investment of trust funds and in an amount or amounts to be determined by the Commission, to secure the liability of the employer to pay the compensation specified in this article. The Commission may require the employer to obtain and file with the Commission a policy of insurance protecting the employer against liability for workmen's compensation benefits resulting from a catastrophe or disaster, other than from an act of war. If required by the Commission, the policy of insurance shall be in the amount and shall contain the provisions as in the judgment of the Commission are required to provide security for the payment of compensation and medical treatment. In order to be informed as to the continued financial responsibility of any employer the Commission may require reports from him annually or at any other times as the Commission may deem necessary or advisable, and may examine the employer under oath or make other examination of his business as the Commission may determine. If he should fail to furnish satisfactory proof, or give bond, or deposit securities as required by the Commission, or if he should at any time fail to render satisfactory reports to the Commission or otherwise satisfy the Commission of its continued financial ability to pay the compensation, he shall be subject to the provisions of the first paragraph of this section, and shall be required by the Commission to insure as provided in the first