

his REPORTED annual payrolls for the three calendar years immediately preceding that computation date. However, for any employer who has not been subject to the provisions of this article for a period of time sufficient to meet the three-calendar-year requirement, that benefit ratio is the quotient obtained by dividing the total benefits chargeable to his experience-rating record and paid during the entire period, ending on December 31 immediately preceding the computation date, that he has been subject to this article by the total amount of wages for employment paid by the employer during the period beginning with the first day of the calendar quarter in which he first became subject to the provisions of this article and ending on December 31 of the calendar year immediately preceding that computation date, with respect to which wages [contributions] have been [paid] REPORTED on or before that computation date. That benefit ratio shall be computed to the fourth decimal point.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1984.

Approved May 29, 1984.
