

CHAPTER 8

(House Bill 203)

AN ACT concerning

Harford County - Alcoholic Beverages Licenses

FOR the purpose of providing that in Harford County a Class A-1 alcoholic beverages licensee who held a Class A license before a certain date may convert to a Class A license by notifying the Harford County liquor board before a certain date under certain circumstances; providing that Class A-1 and A-2 licensees must have and maintain a certain minimum amount of beer, wine, and liquor in stock; generally relating to Class A-1 and A-2 licenses in Harford County; providing that in Harford County if the number of any class of alcoholic beverages licenses issued after a certain date exceeds a certain quota, new licenses of such class may not be issued unless certain circumstances occur; altering the distance a Class C licensee in Harford County may locate from a school; and making this Act an emergency measure.

BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments,
