

~~Code, to the General Assembly on the activities of his office which are not confidential.~~

~~(k) He and the attorneys on his staff appointed by him shall devote full time to their official duties and shall not engage in the private practice of law.~~

~~(l) He shall represent the State in all appeals and post conviction proceedings arising from prosecutions conducted by him. However, the Attorney General may represent the State or assist the State Prosecutor upon the request of the State Prosecutor or as required by law in any such appeal or collateral proceeding.~~

~~(m) He shall meet and confer regularly with the Attorney General and the various State's attorneys. }~~

{33C-

~~The State Prosecutor may appoint and employ the professional, investigative, and clerical staff provided in the State budget. To the extent practicable, the State Prosecutor shall utilize the services and personnel of the office of the Attorney General, the Maryland State Police, and other established State and law enforcement agencies. These agencies shall, to the extent feasible, cooperate with the State Prosecutor and his staff. }~~

[33D.

(a) The State Prosecutor Selection and Disabilities Commission is created. It consists of the Attorney General, ex officio, but with power to vote, and six persons appointed by the Governor, as follows:

(1) Two persons, only one of whom shall be a lawyer, shall be selected from among two or more nominees submitted by the President of the Senate and two persons only, one of whom shall be a lawyer, shall be selected from among two or more nominees submitted by the Speaker of the House of Delegates. These persons shall not be members of the General Assembly or full-time State employees.

(2) One person shall be selected from among one or more nominees submitted by the Board of Governors of the Maryland State Bar Association, Incorporated. This person shall be a lawyer admitted to practice law in Maryland.

(3) One person shall be selected from among one or more nominees submitted by the governing board of the Maryland State's Attorneys Association, Incorporated, or its successor. This person shall be an incumbent State's attorney at the time of his appointment and throughout his term as a member of the Commission.