

Senate Bill 740, which was passed by the General Assembly and signed by me on May 29, 1984, accomplishes the same purpose. Therefore, it is not necessary for me to sign House Bill 1475.

Sincerely,
Harry Hughes
Governor

House Bill No. 1475

AN ACT concerning

Environmental Health-Practitioners Sanitarians

FOR the purpose of transferring with certain amendments Title 17 of the Health Occupations Article to be a new Title 5.5 in the Health Occupations Article; changing references to "Sanitarians" to "Environmental Health---Practitioners Sanitarians"; changing certain educational, and work experience requirements for certification as an environmental health--practitioner sanitarian; requiring certain certification for certain environmental health practitioners sanitarians; providing certain additional duties for the Board of Environmental Health--Practitioners Sanitarians; providing the Board with certain powers to set certain fees; requiring the Board to adopt a certain ethics code; adding certain grounds for denial of certification or certain other punitive actions; and generally relating to the licensure and regulation of environmental health practitioners sanitarians.

BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments,

Article - Health Occupations

Section 17-101 through 17-310 and 17-312 through 17-317 to be under the amended title "Title 5.5. Environmental Health-Practitioners Sanitarians"

Annotated Code of Maryland

(1981 Volume and 1983 Supplement)

BY repealing

Article - Health Occupations

Section 17-303 and 17-311

Annotated Code of Maryland

(1981 Volume and 1983 Supplement)
