

Zones.

Adopted May 18, 1982.

-----

ORDINANCE NO. 9-76

AN AMENDMENT to Division 59-A-2, title "Definitions and Interpretations," and Division 59-C-4, title "Commercial Zones," Section 59-C-4.0, title "Land Uses," for the purpose of providing a definition for the term "Duplicating Service," and to allow a duplicating service as a permitted use in the C-1 (convenience commercial) Zone.

Adopted July 20, 1982.

-----

ORDINANCE NO. 9-77

AN AMENDMENT to Division 59-B-3, title "Exemptions for Projections," Section 59-B-3.3, title "Cornices, Eaves, Outside Stairways, and Chimneys," to allow air conditioners and heat pumps to project not more than five feet into any minimum front or rear yards.

Adopted July 27, 1982.

-----

ORDINANCE NO. 9-78

AN AMENDMENT to Article 59-H, title "Amendment Procedures," Division 59-H-4, title "Public Hearing," Section 59-H-4.23, title "Posting of Property--Local Map Amendments," for the purpose of clarifying and further specifying the requirements related to posting of the zoning sign on or near property that is the subject of a local map amendment.

Adopted July 27, 1982.

-----

ORDINANCE NO. 9-79

AN AMENDMENT to Division 59-C-4, title "Commercial Zones," Section 59-C-4.3, title "C-O Zone - Development Standards," Section 59-C-4.31, title "Building Height," to add the requirement that additional building height may be permitted as long as such additional height is not contrary to a master plan recommendation.