

agency or body responsible for the plan or development has the power to proceed without the approval of the Regional Planning Council, after consideration of the matter in light of said disapproval. Upon such action it shall advise the Regional Planning Council in writing.

It is the intention of this section that the Regional Planning Council shall be consulted on every improvement which directly affects more than one unit of government. It is the purpose of this section to give The Council an opportunity to determine what effect a contemplated improvement will have upon the suggested general development plan and to voice its opinion thereon. It is not the purpose of this section to provide the Regional Planning Council with a veto over such improvement or structure.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1984.

Approved May 8, 1984.
