

be construed or interpreted to grant planning and zoning authority or subdivision control to a municipality not authorized to exercise that authority at the time of such annexation; and further provided, that no municipality annexing land may for a period of five years following annexation, place that land in a zoning classification which permits a land use substantially different from the use for the land specified in the current and duly adopted master plan or plans or if there is no adopted or approved master plan, the adopted or approved general plan or plans of the county or agency having planning and zoning jurisdiction over the land prior to its annexation without the express approval of the board of county commissioners or county council of the county in which the municipality is located.

Article 25 - County Commissioners

(mm) (1) To enact laws or regulations designed to prevent conflicts between the private interests and public duties of any county officers or employees, including the county commissioners, and to govern the conduct and actions of all such county officers and employees in the performance of their public duties, and to provide for penalties, including fines, forfeitures, imprisonment, and removal from office for violation of any such laws or regulations.

(2) This [section] SUBSECTION applies to the county commissioners of each county, including those otherwise exempted by subsection (a)(2) of this section.

(a) All drainage improvements constructed under §§ 52 through 95 of this article shall be under the control and supervision of the county board of managers. It shall be the duty of the board to keep the drainage improvements in good repair.

(b) Also for this purpose, the county board of managers may at any time levy a tax for drainage improvements maintenance on the lands benefited. Taxes for maintenance purposes shall be levied, collected and disbursed in the same manner as were the original taxes for drainage improvements.

(c) If the [Caroline County] board of managers requests, the [Caroline County Commissioners] COUNTY COMMISSIONERS may appoint a board of drainage viewers to evaluate changes in land use made after the original assessment for drainage improvement. The county board of managers may use the evaluation report as a basis for the levy of a tax for drainage improvements maintenance.
