

pedestrian using a guide dog in any of the places, accommodations or conveyances listed in paragraph (1) of this subsection [(d)], has all the rights and privileges conferred by law upon any other person.

(3) The failure of a blind or visually handicapped pedestrian to carry a cane predominantly white or metallic in color (with or without a red tip) or a deaf or hearing impaired pedestrian to use a guide dog wearing an orange license tag, orange collar and on a leash, or to use a guide dog in any of the places, accommodations, or conveyances listed in paragraph (1) of this subsection [(d)] shall not be held to constitute contributory negligence per se.

Article 31 - Debt - Public

4.

It shall be unlawful for the trustees, managers, directors or superintendent of any of the public institutions of the State [of Maryland,] to create a deficiency, incur a liability, or to expend a greater sum of money than is appropriated by the General Assembly of Maryland for the use of such public institution or department.

6.

Whenever any treasurer or other authorized financial officer of any county, municipal or public corporation, special district and/or political subdivision of this [State] STATE, who is or shall be entrusted with the duty of investing the sinking funds or other funds accumulated or to be accumulated for the retirement of the debts or other obligations of such county, municipal or public corporation, special district and/or political subdivision, shall at any time hereafter be required by the terms of any general or local law of this State to invest any portion of such funds in his custody, it shall be his duty to invest the same in the following classes of securities: (a) The bonds or other obligations for the retirement of which said sinking fund is or shall be created; (b) the bonds, stock, or other valid obligations of this State or of any county, municipal or public corporation, special district and/or political subdivision of this State; (c) the bonds or other obligations of the United States of America, United States Treasury Certificates, bonds of any public corporation, or other body, guaranteed as to payment of principal and interest by the United States of America. Provided, that in the event any such treasurer or other financial officer shall purchase any of the above-described securities at a premium, then it shall be his duty to make such adjustments out of the interest received from such security so purchased as shall reimburse any sinking fund in his custody for the premium so paid prior to the maturity of the security so purchased, and provided finally that such of the securities so purchased as are registerable shall be registered in the name of said treasurer or other authorized financial