

($6.00), and no more, before granting the license applied for. The Maryland Workshop for the Blind may likewise secure a trader's license for such an establishment or place of business of which it is the owner, upon its making an affidavit to such fact, and if any person who is to act as manager thereof has a vision of less than the standard above specified. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the public general or public local laws of Maryland, such licensee shall not, during the term of such license, be required to obtain any additional license or to pay any additional license fee for the privilege of selling any goods, wares or merchandise other than alcoholic beverages. No license issued under the provisions of this section shall be transferable, except that the Maryland Workshop for the Blind may from time to time change the manager in any such establishment or place of business owned or operated by it, placing therein a new manager with a vision less than the standard above specified. Any person, including any registered physician, who shall violate, or who shall conspire to violate any of the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than three hundred dollars ($300.00) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), or imprisoned for not less than thirty (30) days nor more than six (6) months, or both. Nothing in this section shall apply to any trader's license if the average amount of goods, wares, and merchandise shall exceed $10,000.00, nor shall anything in this section be construed as changing the provisions of § 9 of Article 30 of this Code].

No person holding any license, as provided in [§]§ 65 or § 66 of this article shall purchase cigarettes, except from the manufacturer thereof, for the purpose of resale in this State at wholesale, as defined in § 11-501 (1) of the Commercial Law Article of the Code, or at retail, as defined in § 11-501 (i) of the Commercial Law Article of the Code, from a person not having a license as provided for in § 66 of this article.

68.

The license fees provided by § 65 and § 66 of this article shall be paid over to the general treasury of the State, and it is intended that the said fees are to be used to cover the expenses of administration of the licensing program and the enforcement of the [Unfair Cigarette Sales Act] CIGARETTE SALES BELOW COST ACT.

70.

(a) The Comptroller is empowered to suspend or revoke the special wholesaler's or retailer's cigarette licenses required by §§ 65 and 66 of this article, upon a finding by him that the licensee has failed to comply with the Unfair Cigarette Sales Act or any rule or regulation promulgated by the Comptroller with reference to said act, or that the licensee has violated the
