

provisions of § 67 of this article. Such suspension or revocation shall be made only after notice to the licensee and a hearing by the Comptroller or such officer as may be prescribed by the Comptroller. At such hearing the licensee shall have the right to be represented by counsel, to present evidence, to cross-examine and to present argument, but the technical rules of evidence shall not apply. In the case of a first offender, the Comptroller shall suspend said wholesaler's or retailer's special cigarette license or licenses for a consecutive period containing not less than five nor more than twenty business days (i.e., days other than Sundays or legal holidays); and, in case of second or subsequent violations, for a consecutive period containing not less than twenty business days nor more than six months; and, in case of wilful and persistent violation, the Comptroller shall revoke such special cigarette licenses. Any suspension or revocation by the Comptroller pursuant to the provisions of this subsection shall not take effect for at least five (5) business days following notice to the licensee of the order of such suspension or revocation. No person whose special cigarette license has been revoked shall be eligible to reapply until after the expiration of one year from the date of revocation, and his reapplication shall be granted only if it satisfactorily appears to the Comptroller that the applicant will comply with the [Unfair Cigarette Sales Act] CIGARETTE SALES BELOW COST ACT and § 67 of this article and the Comptroller's rules and regulations thereunder.

(a) A violation of any of the provisions of this subtitle shall be cause for revocation of any license issued hereunder, notwithstanding that the same violation may constitute a misdemeanor.
