A party may appeal from any of the following interlocutory orders entered by a circuit court in a civil case:

[(a)] (1) An order entered with regard to the possession of property with which the action is concerned or with reference to the receipt or charging of the income, interest, or dividends therefrom, or the refusal to modify, dissolve, or discharge such an order.

[(b)] (2) An order granting or denying a motion to quash a writ of attachment.

[(c)] (3) An order:

[(1)] (I) Granting or dissolving an injunction, but if the appeal is from an order granting an injunction, only if the appellant has first filed his answer in the cause.

[(2)] (II) Refusing to dissolve an injunction, but only if the appellant has first filed his answer in the cause.

[(3)] (III) Refusing to grant an injunction; and the right of appeal is not prejudiced by the filing of an answer to the bill of complaint or petition for an injunction on behalf of any opposing party, nor by the taking of depositions in reference to the allegations of the bill of complaint to be read on the hearing of the application for an injunction.
