

papers or documents appertaining thereto shall be forthwith transmitted by the clerk of the court to the State Appeal Board. The said Board, after due notice to the applicant and to one or more of the objectors shall notify the clerk of the court of the Board's findings thereon. If the Board determines that the granting of the license is not necessary for the accommodation of the public, or that the applicant is not a fit person to receive such license, or he has made a material false statement in his application, or has practiced fraud in the application, or that the operation of the business if the license is granted, will unduly disturb the peace of the residents of the neighborhood in which the place of business is to be located, or that there are other reasons in the discretion of the Board why the license should not be issued under other sections of this article, then the application shall be disapproved, and no such license shall be issued. If no such findings are made by the Board, then the application shall be approved and the clerk shall forthwith issue the license applied for upon receipt of notice or a certificate of approval from the Board, and upon payment of the fee required. The findings of the Board in connection with all such applications shall be final only in those counties where no appeal to a court is provided in any other section of this article.]

70.

(a) The Comptroller[,] OR the board of license commissioners for any county or Baltimore City[, or State Appeal Board], as the case may be, may on its own initiative or upon the written complaint of ten or more citizens, residents, real estate owners and voters of the precinct in which any licensed place of business is situated or upon the complaint of any deputy or inspector employed by the Comptroller in the administration of this law, or any peace officer, or if the licensee is located within the corporate limits of any municipality, which is within a county, upon complaint of the mayor and council of that municipality, after a hearing upon charges to be framed by the officer, board [or State Appeal Board], or upon the complaint, notice of which shall be given to the licensee at least ten days before the hearing, revoke or suspend any license issued under the provisions of this article. Nothing contained in this section shall prevent the immediate suspension of any license by the Comptroller as provided, nor in Kent County, the remedies provided in § 158(h).

147.

(a) The Comptroller, the clerks of the several courts and the boards of license commissioners [and the State Appeal Board] shall severally keep an accurate record of every license issued or approved by them, respectively, under the provisions of this article, and shall also keep an accurate record of all revocations, suspensions and cancellations of licenses and of all restrictions imposed upon any license, with a brief notation as to the cause for such action, and the said clerk[,] AND THE
