

before the said boards. The noting of an appeal and payment of said costs shall stay the order of the board pending the determination of the appeal. It shall be the duty of the State Appeal Board to hear and determine all such appeals within thirty days from the date of the receipt of the papers and testimony from the board originally hearing the application, complaint or charges, and if the decision appealed from is reversed, the costs paid by the appellants shall be recoverable by the appellants from the appellees, in a civil action, and failure of the Appeal Board to determine the appeal within a period of thirty days, after the record has been filed as above provided, shall be considered an automatic affirmance of the local board's decision unless the time has been extended by the Appeal Board for a good cause shown.

(b) This section shall be applicable in Dorchester and Somerset counties.]

(a) In addition to the powers otherwise provided by this article, the Comptroller[,] AND the board of license commissioners from any county or Baltimore City [or the State Appeal Board shall], respectively, have full power and authority to adopt such reasonable rules and regulations as they may deem necessary to enable them effectively to discharge the duties imposed upon them by this article.

193.

For the purpose of all hearings and inquiries which the Comptroller[,] OR the board of license commissioners for any county [, or the State Appeal Board are] IS authorized to hold and make, the official, boards [and Appeal Board], and the respective members thereof, are authorized to issue summons for witnesses, and to administer to them oaths or affirmations, and all summonses so issued shall be served by the police department of the City of Baltimore or by the sheriff of any of the counties. If any witness so summoned shall refuse or neglect to attend, or attending, refuse to testify, the official issuing the summons shall report the facts to the circuit court for the county, and the court is hereby authorized and directed to proceed by attachment against the witness in all respects as if neglect or refusal had been by a witness summoned to appear in the court in a case pending before it. In Anne Arundel County, Prince George's County, Carroll County, Baltimore County, Baltimore City, and Howard County, and Worcester County the boards of license commissioners are also authorized to subpoena any records or papers pertaining to a licensed business or establishment. If any witness shall refuse to produce any records or papers so subpoenaed the board shall report the fact to the circuit court for the county, and the court is hereby authorized and directed to proceed by attachment against the witness in all respects as if the refusal had been by a witness summoned to appear in the court in a case pending before it.
