Also in the introductory language of subsection (b) of this section, the phrase "may not set" is substituted for the former phrase "may not be levied", for clarity. Similarly, in subsection (j) of this section, "may set" is substituted for "may levy", for clarity.

In subsections (b), (c), (e), (f), (g), and (h) of this section, the phrase "county or municipal corporation property", which modifies "tax rate" is added for clarity.

In subsection (c) of this section, the phrase "to the public" is substituted for the former phrase "to give notice", for clarity.

In subsection (c)(1) of this section, the reference to the advertisement "that satisfies" the Department is substituted for the former reference to the advertisement being "determined" by the Department, for clarity.

In subsection (c)(2) of this section, the former phrase "in lieu of publishing the advertisement, as provided in subsection (c) of this section" is deleted as superfluous.

In subsection (f)(1)(ii) of this section, the defined term "law" is substituted for the former reference to "the provision contained in a charter, general or local law, or local ordinance", for clarity and brevity. Similarly, in subsection (g) of this section, the defined term "law" is substituted for the former references to "resolution" and "ordinance", for clarity.

In subsection (h)(1) of this section, the phrase "reduction in the taxing authority's assessable base due to a final determination of an assessment appeal" is substituted for the former phrase "reduction of the assessment records by a county board of tax appeals or State Tax Court", for clarity.

In the introductory language of subsection (i)(1) of this section, the term "annually" is substituted for the former phrase "beginning with the taxable year 1978-1979 and each taxable year thereafter", for clarity.

Also in the introductory language of subsection (i)(1) of this section, the reference to "Baltimore City" is deleted as included in the defined term "county".