

(3) A nonconformity, defect, or condition resulting in failure of the braking or steering system has been subject to the same repair at least once within the warranty period, and the manufacturer has been notified and given the opportunity to cure the defect, and the repair does not bring the vehicle into compliance with the motor vehicle safety inspection laws of the State.

[(e)] (F) The term of any warranty, the warranty period, and the 30 day out of service period shall be extended by any time during which repair services are not available to the consumer by reason of war, invasion, strike, or fire, flood, or other natural disaster.

[(f)] (G) If a motor vehicle is returned to a manufacturer or factory branch under subsection (c)(1)(ii) of this section, the manufacturer or factory branch shall notify the Motor Vehicle Administration of the fact that the vehicle was returned under this subtitle as defective.

[(g)] (H) If a motor vehicle that is returned under this subtitle is then made available for resale, the seller shall disclose prior to sale in writing in a clear and conspicuous manner, on a separate piece of paper in ten point all capital type, to a consumer the material fact that this motor vehicle was returned to the manufacturer or factory branch, the nature of the defect which resulted in the return, and the condition of the motor vehicle at the time of resale.

[(h)] (I) This section does not limit the rights or remedies that are otherwise available to a consumer under any other law, including any implied warranties.

[(i)] (J) (1) If a manufacturer or factory branch has established an informal dispute settlement procedure which complies in all respects with the provisions of Title 16, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 703, as amended, a consumer must resort to that procedure before subsection (c) of this section applies.

(2) A consumer who has resorted to an informal dispute settlement procedure may not be precluded from seeking the rights or remedies available by law.

[(j)] (K) (1) Any agreement entered into by a consumer for the purchase of a new motor vehicle that waives, limits, or disclaims the rights set forth in this section shall be void.

(2) The rights available to a consumer under this section shall inure to a subsequent transferee of a new motor vehicle for the duration of the applicable warranties.

[(k)] (L) Any action brought under this section shall be commenced within 3 years of the date of original delivery of the motor vehicle to the consumer.
