

In the introductory language of subsection (b) of this section, the phrase "[e]xcept as provided in subsection (e) of this section" is added to clarify that the exemption is limited.

In subsection (b)(1)(ii) and (2) of this section, the references to meeting the "requirements" to qualify for the exemption are added for clarity.

In subsection (c) of this section, the introductory phrase "[e]xcept as provided in subsections (d) and (e) of this section" is added to clarify that the exemption is limited.

Regarding subsection (c) of this section, former Art. 81, § 9(g)(1)(viii), which generally related to the surviving spouse exemption, is incorporated in the more specific provisions of this subsection (c).

In the introductory language of subsection (c)(1) of this section, the word "receive" is substituted for the former phrase "apply for and receive or continue to receive", for clarity and brevity.

In subsection (c)(1)(i) of this section, the former reference to the exemption "beginning July 1, 1972" is deleted as obsolete.

In subsection (c)(2) of this section, the former reference to the exemption "beginning after July 1, 1976" is deleted as obsolete.

In the introductory language of subsection (c)(3) of this section, the language "equal to the exemption for the former dwelling house when the dwelling house owned by the surviving spouse was transferred" is substituted for the former reference to "the extent of the amount of the prior assessment allowed as an exemption", for clarity.

In subsection (d)(1) of this section, the reference to requiring a disabled veteran or surviving spouse "to apply for an exemption ... to the supervisor" is substituted for the former references to "apply", for clarity and to reflect the administrative practice of the Department.

In subsection (d)(1)(ii) of this section, the phrase "on the form provided by the Department" is added for clarity and to reflect the administrative practice of the Department.

Also in subsection (d)(1)(ii) of this section, the reference to a "certification of the disabled
