

appointed shall perform such duties as may be designated by the court, including the duties as stenographer and typist, and also to make full stenographic notes of all testimony in equity causes, including those causes heard before any of the standing examiners of the court, and to transcribe and typewrite such evidence to be filed in the cause, unless the court shall by its order direct or permit such testimony to be taken down and transcribed by a special or private stenographer. Such testimony so taken shall be paid for by the party ordering the same. It shall be the duty of the court stenographer and assistant court stenographer to furnish in any case, either at law or equity, upon request of any party to any proceeding, copies of the evidence taken, upon payment by the party or parties ordering the same at the usual rates for the same, such rates to be fixed by the order of the court. In addition to the duties as stenographer and typist, the assistant court stenographer and typist shall perform the duties of an assistant bar librarian, the duties to be such as shall be prescribed by the court. The county council is authorized and directed to levy such sum or sums as they shall fix as the salaries of the court stenographer and the assistant court stenographer so appointed by the court.]

[5-205.

The crier of the circuit court shall be entitled to and shall receive a salary in the amount set by the county council, in equal monthly installments, which shall be in full and in lieu of the allowance and fees now authorized by law; provided, that he shall receive his usual fees as now allowed by law; in cases removed from other counties or the City of Baltimore to the circuit court for the county, and the county council shall at their annual meeting for making the county levy, to levy for the use of the crier of the circuit court on the assessable property of the county such sums of money as they shall deem sufficient to pay the salary of the crier of the circuit court, upon presentation to the county controller of the certificate of the clerk of the circuit court, certifying the attendance of the crier as hereinafter required.]

[5-206.

It shall be the duty of the crier of the circuit court at all times to keep and have charge of the courtroom, judge's room and petit jury room of the circuit court, and to clean, air and ventilate the same, to attend the sessions of the circuit court, to have charge and keep open the court library for the use and benefit of persons having business with the circuit court, allowing no books to be taken out of the courtroom, unless the party desiring to remove the same first receipt for them in a book to be kept by the crier, and allow no books to be taken from the library, except by the judges of the circuit court, for a longer period than ten days, and for the faithful discharge of his duties, he shall give bond to the state in the penal sum of five hundred dollars, to be filed with and approved by the clerk of the circuit court.]