

Any person appointed stenographer, as provided in the preceding section, who shall violate or permit to be violated in any manner any of the provisions of this section as to secrecy, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than five dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or be confined in jail for a period of not more than six months, or be both fined and imprisoned, in the discretion of the court.]

[5-505.

Any person appointed clerk under the provisions of section 5-503 of this Code, and having duly qualified, shall attend and be present at the sessions of the grand jury so empaneled in the circuit court, and it shall be his duty to take fully and properly in shorthand any testimony given before the grand jury, and to furnish to such grand jury and the state's attorney promptly and immediately a full and complete transcript or transcripts of such testimony so taken as the grand jury and state's attorney shall require, and he shall not permit any other person to take a copy of the same, or any portion thereof, nor shall he read to or permit to be read by any person any part of the same, nor shall he disclose the character or any of the contents of the same to any person or persons other than the grand jury, or a member thereof, and the state's attorney, except when required so to do by the order of the circuit court. All of such original notes and minutes shall be kept in the custody of the state's attorney, and neither a copy nor memorandum of the same shall be taken from the office of the state's attorney, except for the use of a grand jury of the county, or for production in court, excepting, however, when otherwise ordered by the circuit court; and, all of such notes and transcripts of testimony may be destroyed by the state's attorney upon his application to and written authority of the court first obtained.]

[5-506.

The person so selected and appointed stenographer, as provided in section 5-503 of this Code, shall serve only during the sessions of the particular grand jury for which he was appointed, or for such special cases as may be required, which shall clearly appear in the order of his appointment, shall receive a proper compensation for his services, to be determined by the order of the circuit court and fixed, not exceeding the amount of five dollars per diem when he shall be employed, and he shall be allowed such reasonable expenses as the court may deem proper and right. He shall be paid by the county council in like manner as the members of the grand jury are paid, upon certificate of the clerk of the circuit court, when duly appointed by one of the judges of such court.]

[5-600.

There is hereby created and established the county juvenile probation department.]
