

All other personnel in the department shall be appointed by the county executive, upon the recommendation of the director of probation, with the approval of the court, and may be removed at any time by the director, with the approval of the court and the county executive, upon thirty days' written notice of the date of removal.]

[5-604.

Under the supervision and administrative direction of the court, the director of probation shall be in full charge of the department and shall set up procedures, rules and regulations for carrying out the functions and duties of the department. He shall be responsible for the direct supervision and administration of all personnel in the department. He shall keep himself and the court informed of the availability of other community agencies for handling children's problems. He shall make every effort to screen all cases before petitions are made out against persons who might be brought before the court.

The assistant probation officers shall perform such duties as they may be called upon to perform by the director of probation in carrying out the functions and duties of the department:]

[5-605.

The salaries of all personnel in the department shall be fixed by the court, subject to the approval of the county council.]

[5-606.

All regular employees and officers of the department shall be entitled to membership in the county retirement and pension systems and shall be entitled to the same right and duties thereunder as other county employees.]

[5-607.

The circuit court shall assess a charge of two per cent over and above and based upon monies, ordered by such court and by the people's court of the county to be paid by errant fathers or husbands, to support their children, or in payment of alimony, including monies which children are ordered to pay for the support of parents, for the purpose of defraying expenses in the county's juvenile probation department, which office administers the program. This two per cent service charge shall be paid by persons so ordered to pay support monies.]

[5-608.

(a) The juvenile probation department is authorized to receive and distribute to the proper persons all monies paid to