

The judges of the orphans' court of the county shall be exempt from serving as jurors in the circuit court for the county.]

[5-803.

The county council is hereby authorized to levy for and pay to the register of wills of the county annually the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars to pay for recording the proper dockets of administration and providing for the orphans' court.]

[5-1100.

The sheriff shall collect all fees and charges in civil and criminal cases to which his office may be entitled by law, and shall exercise all powers conferred upon him by law to enforce the collection of the same, and shall keep a systematic and complete record of all such cases and collections from the same, and shall in each month, make a full and detailed report of all fees charged for, and also all fees received by him for the preceding month in all cases to the controller; such statements and reports to be under oath of the sheriff, and the statements and reports to be accompanied by the sheriff's check for all of such fees in such cases collected by him during the preceding month. The amounts so charged for expenses of deputies shall be reasonable and shall not exceed a maximum schedule to be prescribed by the council and filed with the sheriff. Whenever any sheriff shall retire from office, leaving uncollected any costs, fees or charges in civil and criminal cases lawfully payable to him or his office, it shall be the duty of his successor to collect and pay over the same in the manner above prescribed, and it shall be the duty of the sheriff to keep in his office, in proper books for the purpose, an official record of the fees and charges to be collected by him and those which have been so collected, which books shall remain in his office after the expiration of his term for the use of his successor.]

[5-1101.

For the purpose of verifying and checking up the accounts and reports of the sheriff provided for in the preceding section, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the circuit court of the county, at the end of every term of such court, to submit to the county controller a list of all criminal cases of such term where the costs have been adjudged against the county, together with a statement of such costs, and also a statement of all fees, in criminal cases, charged or received by the sheriff during such term.]

[5-1200.

The county council shall allow the state's attorney the expenses incurred by him in the conduct of his office, and in following and trying criminal cases, and for the equipment of his office.]
