

(2) The Commission may recertify a police [certificate] OFFICER, provided for in paragraph (6) of subsection (d), upon:

(i) An automatic lapse of the certificate; or

(ii) A revocation of a certification.

(3) If the certificate has lapsed, the POLICE officer may apply for [its] recertification immediately.

(4) If the certification has been revoked, the POLICE officer may apply for recertification upon waiting 2 years from the date the revocation order became effective.

(i) (1) If the certificate is in danger of lapsing or has lapsed because of the police officer's failure to meet the Commission's standards, the police officer may request a hearing before the commission to present evidence:

(i) That the Department unreasonably failed to provide the officer with the required training or assigned the officer to special duty which prevented the officer from completing the required training to achieve this certification; and

(ii) That this failure is through no fault of [his own] THE POLICE OFFICER.

(2) The Commission shall hold a hearing<sup>f</sup>. For purposes of this subsection, the Commission shall follow the procedures prescribed for a hearing board under the law enforcement officer's Bill of Rights, and the officer shall be entitled to all of the rights provided under that Act. ~~---UNDER THE-PROVISIONS-OF-THE-ADMINISTRATIVE-PROCEDURE-ACT-~~

(3) If the Commission concludes that the Department unreasonably failed to provide the police officer with the training necessary or assigned the officer to special duty which prevented the officer from completing the training necessary to achieve this certification:

(i) The Commission shall stay the lapse of this certificate until the officer and the Department meet the Commission's training requirements;

(ii) The officer shall be retained in the Department at full pay pending the completion of the training; and

(iii) The Commission shall order the Department to pay all reasonable hearing costs and attorney's fees incurred as a result of the action.
