 MARYLAND, That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:

Article 41 - Governor - Executive and Administrative Departments

266DD-1.

(b) The Community Development Administration is hereby created as a division of the principal Department of Economic and Community Development to coordinate the various activities and programs which may contribute to sound community development, to encourage and facilitate the development of new and existing communities by reducing the costs of development through grants and loans, to encourage and facilitate energy conservation and the utilization of solar energy in housing and commercial buildings by providing grants, loans, and other forms of financial assistance, making available land for such development and by assisting the efforts of private enterprise, municipalities, counties, local public agencies and local development corporations. Except for grants [for energy conservation in residential buildings] which may be awarded to the Administration under FEDERAL LAW, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION Title V of the Energy Security Act, P.L. 96-294, grants of land or money shall be limited to local governments or to organizations which are defined under 266DD-3(h), (i), (j), and (l) of this subtitle.
