CHAPTER 698

(House Bill 1360)

AN ACT concerning

Motor Vehicle Insurance - Coverage - Exclusions

FOR the purpose of altering the provision of law excluding certain persons from motor vehicle insurance coverage so that certain persons, because of claims experience, are excluded from all coverage when operating a motor vehicle; providing that when an excluded driver operates a motor vehicle, all coverage extending to certain other individuals is void; limiting the liability of an insurer when an excluded driver operates a motor vehicle; permitting an insurer to exclude from uninsured motor vehicle coverage certain individuals related to, or occupying or struck by, a person excluded from coverage because of claims experience; providing for a certain exception; and generally relating to motor vehicle insurance.
