Mayor and City Council of Baltimore City or the governing body of a county or of a municipal corporation" is substituted for the former phrase "a political subdivision in this State", for clarity.

Also in subsection (b) of this section, the defined term "law" is substituted for the former phrase "resolution or ordinance enacted under its usual procedure therefor", for clarity.

Also in subsection (b) of this section, the former phrase "in order to encourage restoration and preservation of structures having historic and architectural value and construction of architecturally compatible new structures by private owners" is deleted as superfluous.

Also in subsection (b) of this section, the former phrase "upon real property in the particular subdivision", is deleted as unnecessary in light of the establishment of credit for a "structure".

Also in subsection (b) of this section, the introductory language of former Art. 81, § 12G(a), which referred to this section as exclusively regulating "the granting of any special tax credit based upon the restoration and preservation of structures" is deleted as misleading and, in any event, superfluous.

In subsection (d) of this section, the phrase "in the county or municipal corporation that are eligible for a property tax credit under this section", which modifies "each structure" is added for clarity.

Also in subsection (d) of this section, the reference to a commission "under any name", is deleted as superfluous.

In subsection (f) of this section, the phrase "necessary to carry out this section" is substituted for the former phrase "applying to any such tax credit", for clarity.
