

In subsections (a)(1) and (3) and (f)(3)(i) and (4), the defined term "real property" is substituted for the former term "land", for clarity.

In subsections (a)(2), (b), (c), and (e) of this section, the defined term "law" is substituted for the former words "resolution" and "ordinance", for clarity.

In subsection (a)(2) of this section, the reference to "the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore City or the governing body of the county" is substituted for the former phrase "the county commissioners or county council of the county", for clarity.

In subsection (a)(3)(i) of this section, the exception "in subsection (i) of this section" is added for clarity.

In subsection (a)(3)(ii) of this section, the former phrase "for which the owner or predecessor in title" is deleted as unnecessary since only an owner or a predecessor in title may convey or assign an easement.

In subsections (b) and (c) of this section, the references to "the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore City or the governing body of a county or of a municipal corporation" is substituted for the former reference to "in the particular political subdivision", for clarity. Similarly, in subsection (g) of this section, the reference to "county or municipal corporation" are substituted for the former reference to "particular political subdivision", for clarity.

In subsections (b) and (c) of this section, the former reference to "county school, municipal or property taxes" is deleted as superfluous.

In subsection (b) of this section, the defined term "governing body" is substituted for the former references to "the board of county commissioners", "county council", and the "mayor and city council, by whatever name known," for clarity.

Also in subsection (b) of this section, the former phrase "in order to encourage and assist the preservation of open space" is deleted as superfluous.

Also in subsection (b) of this section, the former reference to a law "enacted under its usual procedure therefor", is deleted as superfluous.

In the introductory language of subsection (d) of this